

We have a very full program with our conference and of course Paris has a lot to offer in terms of exhibitions and other forms of entertainment, but we wanted to let you know about some additional events that will be taking place on or near campus in case you have some extra time you'd like to fill.

Tuesday May 26 1:30 - 2:30 p.m.

The IMAGO visual seminar of the CESAH will present the ethnographic film The Story of the Anklet by K.V. Cybil, which explores an ecstatic ritual festival in Kerala.

Location: EHESS Building, Campus Condorcet, Salle Gradinée, 1st floor

Wednesday May 26 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Satoshi Ogura from the Tokyo University of Foreign Studies will give a lecture on "How to express the way to liberation: a preliminary study in an unedited Persian translation of the Laghu-Yogavasiṣṭha made at Akbar's court."

Location: FMSH, Salle 9, 54 blvd Raspail, 75006 Paris

Thursday May 28, starting at 5:30 p.m.

The Campus Condorcet is organizing the first ever Condor'Set, an outdoor musical festival with a large central stage set up on campus. Food and refreshments will also be on hand to round out the evening in a relaxed atmosphere.

Thursday May 28 8:00 p.m.

The Quartor Magenta and the Gutenberg School chorale will present a concert of classical music. Location: Église Saint-Paul de la Plaine, 29 rue de Landy, 93210 Saint-Denis

Wednesday June 3 & Thursday June 4

International Conference on "The Empire that Made India: 500 years of the Mughals." Organized by Naveen Kanalu.

Location: EHESS, 54 blvd Raspail, 75006 Paris